TO VOTE TODAY ON RECIPROCITY

Long Debate in Senate Brought to a Close.

LAFOLLETTE'S SPEECH GIVEN

Others Heard in Opposition to Bill Are Smith of Michigan, Crawford of South Dakota, and McCumber.

Washington, July 22.—Debate was closed in the senate on the Canadian reciprocity bill. Under the terms of the unanimous consent agreement the senate began voting today on the bill and all pending amendments.

The bill will be passed without amendment by approximately a vote of 2 to 1 in its favor.

The feature of the last day's debate was Senator LaFollette's speech, in which he attacked the newspapers of the country for advocating Canadian reciprocity, and charged that they were actuated by selfish motives, such as the precuniary gain that would accrue to them by getting print paper free.

Other speeches were made in opposition to the bill by Senator Smith of Michigan, Senator Crawford of South Dakota, and Senator McCumber. The debate was closed by Senator Gore of Oklahoma, who advocated the passage of the bill.

The announcement of the resignation of Philander C. Knox, secretary of state, as a member of the national monetary commission was made in the open senate, and Senator Penrose was nominated by the vice president to succeed Mr. Knox as a member of the commission.

ACCUSES OFFICERS OF LAW

J. J. McNamara Intimates They Took $422 from Safe.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 22.—In a long letter to The Bridgeman, official organ of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, John J. McNamara, confined in jail at Los Angeles on a dynamiting charge, virtually accuses the local detectives and Detective Burns and Walter Drew of the Erectors' association of stealing the $422 that disappeared from the safe at the association headquarters soon after McNamara's arrest.

He says that the finding of less than $50 on his person when he was searched shows that he could not have gotten the money.

LEWIS TO GIVE UP PROPERTY

St. Louis Publisher Ordered to Turn Over Holdings to Receiver.

St. Louis, Mo., July 22. — Supplementary orders, placed on the records of the United States circuit, require E. G. Lewis, whose properties were placed in receivership, and his wife to deed to the receivers all their property which has connection with the Lewis enterprises, capitalized at more than $5,000,000.

According to attorneys for creditors the orders include the Lewis home in University City, the suburb in which most of the Lewis concerns are located.

TEXAS PROHIBITION ELECTION

Large Vote Expected and Both Sides Express Confidence of Winning.

Dallas, Tex., July 22. — The Texas state-wide prohibition election takes place today. Both sides profess to be confident of winning.

There are approximately 600,000 qualified voters. The anti-prohibitionists estimate the total vote at about 460,000 and that the antis will win by 75,000. The Prohibitionists estimate the vote at 500,000 and claim the Prohibition amendment will be adopted by 50,000 majority.

THROWS OPEN INDIAN LANDS

President Gives Homesteader Right to Reservation in North Dakota.

Minot, N. D., July 22. — President Taft has issued a proclamation throwing open to settlement the Fort Berthold Indian reservation in North Dakota. Registration will commence Aug. 14. Principal point of registration is Minot, N. D.

ALLEGAN LADIES DROWNED

Go Beyond Their Depth While Learning to Swim.

Allegan, Mich., July 22. — While bathing in Middle lake three ladies and three children got past the rope showing the deep water line and two of them, Mrs. J. H. Vanness, wife of one of Allegan's most prominent doctors, and Miss Eleanor Thompson, daughter of Probate Judge L. L. Thompson, were drowned.

The party had been spending a few weeks at this lake and while the gentlemen were in town, the ladies and children were out learning to swim. All had joined hands and were swimming away from shore when they noticed that they had passed the danger line. They became frightened, and but four of them were able to get back.

CHARGES AGAINST WILEY MAY RECOIL ON THE DOPED FOOD INTERESTS

Washington, D. C., July 22.—It is freely predicted that the charges against Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Chief of the Bureau of Chemistry in connection with the salary of Dr. H. H. Rusby will prove a boomerang and recoil upon the doped food interests which have handicapped his administration of the pure food laws and have sought to oust him. It seems more than probable that the Remsen board will be abolished and many members of Congress believe that "Uncle Jere Wilson," the aged head of the department of agriculture, will find it convenient to resign. The House Committee on expenditures in the Department of Agriculture, of which Representative Moss, of Indiana, is chairman, will go to the bottom of the efforts to get Wiley's scalp and many interesting developments are scheduled. A genuine sensation is promised when the Remsen Board is smoked out. Some years ago the attacks in Congress on the legal status of the board became so violent that it was thought well to have an opinion from Attorney General Wickersham on the subject. One was made public in which Mr. Wickersham held the board was legally appointed.

Former President Roosevelt may be summoned by the committee to tell of the circumstances leading to the appointment of the Remsen board.

TRAINING SCHOOL CLOSES SUCCESSFUL SESSION FRIDAY

The Normal training school closed its summer term Friday. The general attendance for observation had been even greater than ever before, though this has always been a prized feature among the attractions offered the summer student, and many leave the city immediately upon its conclusion More certificates of attendance have been issued this year by fifty per cent than ever before. The work, which has been generally very successful, has been witnessed by ward school principals, teachers and schoolmen from various cities throughout the country.

Miss Adella Jackson has given an admirable course of lectures on primary methods, and Miss Abigail Roe a course similarly helpful on grammar grade methods. Both courses have been illustrated from time to time with groups of children drawn from the different grades. The attendance and the appreciation of both these courses have been particularly gratifying to the administration.

The training school will open on September 18, somewhat later than has been the custom. This is because experience has proven that little is accomplished in assembling while the hot weather continues.

Ann Arbor, July 22.—The jury rendered a verdict of no cause for action in the case of Eugene Zeluff of Monroe against the A. A. Ry. which was tried in this city before Jstice Doty, Friday. Zeluff in company with five friends attended one of the big football games in Ann Arbor last fall. Their train did not stop until it reached Toledo but they planned on jumping off at the station at Dundee. As they refused to pay their fare to Toledo they were obliged to walk back. The other five intend to take up the case in Monroe.

MAGONISTS IN FORCE

Threaten to Capture Parral by Assault of Arms.

Movement Is Giving Present Powers in Mexico Much Concern—Reyes Remains Loyal.

Monterey, Mex., July 22.—Dispatches from Chihuahua say that a large body of Magonists has made its appearance near Parral, and is threatening to capture that city by force of arms. Many of the Magonists are said to be former Maderist soldiers who have been attracted to the new standard by promises of large pay for their services. The Magonist movement is also giving much concern in the states of Coahuila and Durango.

Close personal friends here of General Bernardo Reyes make authoritative denial that a revolutionary movement is being organized in his behalf to place him in the presidential chair. It is said by men who have been in recent communication with General Reyes that he will remain true to his promise to aid Madero in righting the country.

Labor conditions in northern Mexico show no improvement.

CODDLING MOTH ON THE JOB

Unless Barry Farmers Watch Out, Apple Crop Will be Failure.

Hastings, Mich., July 22.—Unless farmers in this vicinity spray their apple trees the codling moth, or apple worm, will destroy the great fruit crop in Barry county, says Professor O. K. White, field agent for the Michigan Agricultural college, who is making orchard inspections here.

Delay in spraying means the ruining of the apple crop, which promises to be the largest in this county in years, as most horticulturists have begun to apply scientific methods in conducting their orchards, with excellent and unexpected results.

ACCUSES FATHER-IN-LAW

Woodland Man Alleges Elder Threatened His Life.

Hastings, Mich., July 22.—Charged with making threats to obliterate his son-in-law, Charles Rowlander, a well known resident of Woodland, George F. Briggs, a prominent resident of Sunfield, has been arrested and placed under $500 bonds to keep the peace.

Some one sent Briggs some pictorial postal cards of an uncomplimentary nature referring to family affairs. Briggs accused his daughter of sending them and during the altercation her husband took a hand. It is alleged that Briggs threatened to kill. Attorney Sullivan, counsel for Briggs, has appealed the case to the circuit court.

Beautification Contest Works Good Results

SMALL PRIZES FOR BEST YARDS EFFECTS MANY CITY IMPROVEMENTS.

San Antonio, Texas, July 22.—A most interesting contest in city beautification came to a close Saturday when a committee decided who were the winners in a beautiful yard contest conducted by the Real Estate Exchange of this city. More than 100 residents entered this contest, some entering the front yard, some the back yard, and others the entire premises. As soon as the announcement that prizes would be offered for the best lawns, was made, much interest was manifested in the work and it was evident from the beginning that the contest would be close. Many who were not regularly entered caught the spirit of improvemenut and the result is there has been an effort all over the city to beautify home surroundings. No civic improvement work ever undertaken in San Antonio as attracted such general attention and been of more actual benefit. While this was conducted by the Real Estate Exchange, it is in line with the broad work undertaken by the Civic Improvement League, and was in reality one of the links in that organization's effort. The prizes in order were $25.00 for the first; $15 for second, and $10 for third for front yards, with a number of special prizes offered by some of the most progressive citizens of the city.

MEAD BARN BURNS, LOSS PARTLY COVERED

Ann Arbor, July 22.—The barn of Lewis B. Mead was burned to the ground at 5 o'clock Friday evening. It was set afire, it is claimed, by sparks from the Ann Arbor train going north. Sparks blew in the stuble where men had been threshing and the surroundings were all soon on fire. All of the grain and one horse was lost besides the barn. There was $3,000 insurance on the personal property in the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Insurance company and $625 on the barn. The insurance was taken out only July 18.

FIRST PHOTOS SHOWING BRITISHERS DEFEATING AMERICAN COLLEGE STARS

New York, July 22.—The defeat of the Harvard-Yale athletic team by the Oxford-Cambridge stars in London has caused the athletic authorities of the two American colleges to formulate plans to send abroad a team another year that will retrieve the lost laurels. The Britishers administered a stinging setback to the Americans, winning five events out of nine. The accompanying ilustration shows Taylor of Oxford winning the two mile runnings race and Black of Cambridge capturing the quarter mile event.

PERRY BOY BADLY BITTEN

Dog Caught In Wire Fence Attacks Youth Savagely.

Perry, Mich., July 22.—Henry Griffin, eighteen-year-old son of William Griffin, living south of town, was badly bitten on both hands by a dog. The dog was chasing a bird and became tangled in a barbed wire fence. Henry went to the dog's rescue and the dog turned and bit both of his hands. Mrs. Griffin, who witnessed the accident, threw a blanket over the struggling animal and released it. The dog still had its teeth set in the boy's hand.

Henry was hurried to a doctor's office where the wounds were cauterized and dressed. He was out of his head all night from fright and suffering. The physician does not anticipate serious results, but the dog will be closely watched.

"CAMP SHERZER" IN FULL SWING AT PENINSULAR GROVE

The Boy Scouts, with their Scout Masters and camp officers, left town this morning for Camp Sherzer, where their plans for pitching a "tent city" and preparing for the coming week's activities were expeditiousy carried out.

The tents are arranged in a semi-circle 100 feet across. They all face the center, where a campfire will burn upon occasion, and where a flag-pole is now erected. The semicircle is flanked by two front tents. The main tent will be used as a kitchen, pantry and store-house, and is 14 by 16 feet. The fly part will be utilized as a dining place.

Unusual interest surrounds these preparations, as the trained and observant eye of Black Wolf—known to the uninitiated as Ernest Thompson Seton—is to fall upon the camp. He may arrive today and in this case will quite likely address the camp of scouts tomorrow. It is safe to say that, of the hundreds in this city who are keenly anticipating the advent of Mr. Seton, the most eager of these are the Boy Scouts. He belongs to be sure to the vast army of his delighted readers, but the Scouts regard him with a peculiarly proprietary interest, since he is the chief of all scouts.

Mr. Seton will be heard twice each day next week, at four and eight o'clock, in Normal Hall.

Struck by Engine; Loses Arm.

Port Huron, Mich., July 22.—While engaged in his work at the tunnel yards here, Charles Hill was struck by a switch engine and thrown several feet. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and rushed to a hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate his right arm near the elbow. He received other injuries which may prove fotal.

M'MANIGAL IS IN BAD SHAPE

Relative Says He Is Either Doped or Crazy.

FEARS DEATH AFTER TRIAL

Some of the Prisoner's Relatives Have Deserted Him Because He Repeats All Their Conversations to Prosecution.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 22.—Ortie E. McManigal, alleged confessed dynamiter, and informer against the McNamara brothers, has been abandoned by some of his relatives because he repeats all their conversations with him to the prosecution, according to a statement made by an uncle, George Behm.

Behm, who is a locomotive engineer of Portage, Wis., and who cared for McManigal from the time he was an infant until he was nineteen years old, has visited his nephew only once since he arrived in Los Angeles. Behm said he believed that McManigal was "either doped or crazy," and declared his intention of not visiting him again in his cell because "he tells all that's said to him to the detectives for the prosecution."

Behm's stand has been taken also by Mrs. McManigal, who has not called upon her husband for weeks. It is said that she and her children will remain away from him. Of his visits to his nephew, Behm said:

"When I went up to see him I did not make any references to his alleged confession. He brought the subject up, but said little about it. He seemed to be in fear for his life after the trial and said he feared he might be shot by some union men or by detectives. He seemed doped or crazy."

Behm was called before the grand jury for a few minutes, but was excused until July 31.

KILLS BROTHER FOR WOLF

Victim Had Stopped to Tie His Shoe When Fired Upon.

Superior, Wis., July 22.—Joe Derosia shot and killed his brother Frank near Blue Berry, mistaking the boy for a wolf. The Derosia family lives on a farm and Joe was walking home from Blue Berry, carrying a rifle for protection against wolves.

Frank, walking in the opposite direction, had evidently stopped to tie his shoe when his brother spied him and shot.

Baby Eats Stove Polish.

Muncie, Ind., July 22.—Harold Stevens, a little more than a year old, son of William Stevens, ate a quantity of stove polish, containing gasoline, and other poisonous ingredients, and was in a dying condition when discovered.

TIME NOW TO GET FALL BROOD OF CODLING MOTH

Lansing, Mich., July 22.—Observations at the College and several different places about the state, indicate that the fall brood of codling moth is flying at the present time and without doubt, laying eggs which will in a few days, develop into larvae which is commonly called "Apple Worm" and which is so exceedingly destructive at this time of the year. This means that fall and winter varieties of apples should be sprayed the week beginning July 24th in order that the poison may be upon the fruit before the worms hatch and they will be sure to get a good dose as soon as they begin their work.

Two and one-half to three pounds of arsenate of lead should be added to each 50 gallons of Bordeaux or dilute lime-sulphur or whichever fungicide is being used.

Growers should be exceedingy careful to do a thorough job at this time if they expect to satisfactorily control the pest.

Drops Dead While Ironing.

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1911

"WHAT IS SOCIALISM?"

Mr. Kauffman introduces his next chapter, entitled "The Ascent of Man," with the following quotation from Peter Kropotkin's 'Mutual Aid a Factor of Evolution:' "Who are the fittest to survive, those who are continually at war with each other, or those who support one another?"

The pertinence of this question and its legitimate appeal for the consideration of all is illustrated in a current article in the August American magazine by A. S. Crapsey, entitled "The Cost of a Quarrel." It has to do with a strike which has been in existence in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, since March, 10, 1910. It is a coal strike. On one side are the operators and on the other side are the United Mineworkers of America, and Mr. Crapsey might have added, And on the third side, because this is a sort of triangular question, are the people who consume coal and have in the last analysis to shoulder all blunders in economic plans of production, distribution and consumption.

The operators are organized, but they object to the unionizing of the men. The quarrel really started over that point. Then questions of pay, conditions of labor, and so on, became involved. But look at the cost of it already. The United Mineworkers have actually paid out a million dollars in cash to the men who are on strike. The operators have spent half a million for extra police protection. Untold millions are the loss through limitation of output and increased expenses. Twenty lives have been lost and unspeakable suffering incurred. Babies have been born in the open fields where the strikers have camped out. Sickness has abounded; drinking has increased; moral degeneration has set in; physical weakening of the men has taken place.

Mr. Crapsey says further, "No one could be with these men for any length of time without feeling for them a pathetic admiration. They were sacrificing their immediate comfort for a future good. They were fighting for a cause. They were convinced that they were battling for two primitive rights of man: the right of a man to own himself and the right of a man to own his job. These men were living on starvation allowances. The union gave each man two dollars and a half a week, with a small additional sum for each child. They were limited to the simplest food; bread and molasses was a luxury. They would march every afternoon a distance of five miles to and from the mines, and go supperless to bed; and yet they hold on. The condition of the women and the children in the shacks that the labor unions have built to shelter them will not bear description. They are herded without any regard for comfort or decency, they live in their own filth; they are eaten of vermin; they are half-starved; they are clothed in the cast-off rags of others; they are the innocent victims of a great social wrong.

The strikers are beaten, but only for a time. In my judgment we are on the eve of a great industrial struggle in the coal fields upon the issue of which the existence of organized labor will depend."

We throw this in as a current sidelight on the question which is being discussed in Mr. Kauffman's book.

ARGUMENTS WHICH CHEAPEN.

According to press reports, the governor of Texas by request has made a statement to the state tax board as to what in his judgment will be the probable effect on taxes in Texas if a state-wide prohibitory law is passed at today's election. He says that it will require a levy of not less than twelve cents on one hundred dollars to run the state government during the next year, and that this levy probably would have to be increased to thirteen cents if state-wide prohibition carries.

Granting that it would cost one cent more on every hundred dollars of assessed valuation, or ten cents on a thousand, what an unanswerable argument this ought to be for any home-loving citizen, any crime-detesting citizen, any citizen opposed to filling the almshouses, and the asylums and the penitentiaries with citizens, to be fed and cared for at the public expense—an expense probably already in excess of one cent on each hundred dollars of assessed valuation throughout the state.

The appeal furthermore is too purely crass and selfish. It asks the poor laboring man, who hasn't yet a home over his head, to help pay the state taxes by lowering the tax rate by helping to perpetuate a business which subtracts, but never adds, to the income or the welfare of any citizen, which gives him in exchange for his money something which is worse than nothing, and in this way, by encouraging its continuance, fastens upon the laboring man a habit which lessens his chances of ever having a home of his own, and hence this appeal to the purely selfish instincts of those who have property to be assessed to continue this nefarious business.

It cheapens the chief executive, it cheapens the argument, it cheapens the proposition, and it cheapens the citizenship—or, rather, the chief executive's estimate of his constituency. We hope the great Lone Star empire goes dry today.

NEWS BRIEFS

STATE

MASON—Much disgust is felt over the situation in this option county. The M. U. R. cars which come in here from Jackson in the evening bring men whose condition shows readily where they have been, and this is not only confined to the "booze car" as the last car north is called, and which no woman knowing conditions will willingly take, but these disagreeable features are liable to be found on any evening northbound car. Mason is not regretting that Ingham county is "dry" but does regret that Jackson county is again "wet," as the result is felt so plainly here.

HASTINGS—Unless farmers in this vicinity spray their apple trees the coddling moth will destroy the great fruit crop in Barry county, is the statement of O. K. White, field agent for the M. A. C., who is making orchard inspections here this week.

BATTLE CREEK—No longer possessing a family of two score children, his adopted brood having grown up and in most instances departed, Dr J. H. Kellogg has announced his plan of turning a large portion of his spacious private grounds into a public playground. It will contain the usual playground apparatus, with a deer park and duck pond thrown in.

MT. CLEMENS—The 1911 shipment of the public acts to this county may be held up along with others in the state. Formerly the railroads have shipped the books, the freight being collected at the receiving end. The law specifies that board of supervisors pay the bills. The railroad companies declare that under the recent ruling of the interstate commerce commission they do not have to accept such shipments.

NATIONAL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Governor Deneen's $20,000,000 deep waterway bill was suppressed at the close of the session of the legislature called last month. The most important work done was enacting civil service laws which end the old spoils system in this state.

WASHINGTON—The department of justice has ordered an investigation of combinations of milk dealers which it is believed are operating in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law in large cities in the country.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—Over 600,000 acres of Indian lands in the Dakotas are to be thrown open to homeseekers this fall.

FOREIGN

ROME—A fine statue of Venus dating from the second or third century B. C. has been discovered in excavations at Ostia, the ancient part of Rome. The remains of a vast Gallic settlement, superimposed upon a collection of neolithic huts, has been also discovered near Osimo. The huts, which are supposed to date from about 3500 B. C., are of circular form with a hole in the center for the pole by which the roof was supported.

CAIRO—The ministry of public instruction is advertising in the London papers for English and science assistant masters, who will be wanted in October next for the secondary schools under the ministry of education at Cairo and Alexandria.

AMONG THE MAGAZINES

When Cheering Wins the Game.

"The greatest advance in sportsmanship in the last decade of baseball was made when the umpires were instructed to suppress coachers who addressed the opposing players with intent to disturb them, or incited the crowd to assist in 'rattling' the opposition. It still is done, but not openly or flagrantly," writes Hugh S. Fullerton, in "Watch His Arm," the great article on baseball coaching in The American Magazine for August.

"McGraw probably is the greatest master of any of the baseball generals in using the crowd, but he has been wise enough to change with the game and he accomplishes the same results or nearly as great by acting. One of the joys of the game on the old White Sox park in Chicago was to see 'Handsome Nick' Altrock, the comedian-pitcher, step out to coach. He usually wore a mitt and a glove—and as a cheer master he perhaps was the most successful the game ever has known. I have seen him control the entire crowd, using his hands as the conductor of an orchestra does his baton, and at the psychological moment, with one wave of his arm, start twenty thousand men cheering wildly and cheering in unison as he waved to them. The effect upon the opposing team was disastrous in many cases and often turned the game into a rout."

PLAN DOUBLE DECK STREET.

Two Levels Proposed For Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Following a luncheon at the La Salle hotel, participated in by city officials and the members of the Chicago plan commission, a decision was reached adopting the double deck plan for improving Michigan avenue from Randolph street across the Chicago river on the north to Ohio street.

The plan decided on calls for a double deck bascule bridge over the river. At either approach to the elevated boulevard it is proposed to build a plaza 222 feet square.

The upper deck of the new boulevard will be used exclusively for light traffic, and all heavy traffic will be diverted to the lower level. In this way the elevation will not interfere with the traffic incident to the wholesale district near the river, but will be an aid to the heavy teaming by removing all automobile and light traffic to the higher level.

QUARTER NOVELS COMING.

Publisher Predicts Era of Cheap Paper Covers.

An eastern publisher attending the book fair in the Palmer House, Chicago, said recently that in a short time fiction will be served to the summer reader in twenty-five cent paper covers.

The pasteboard or cloth bound volume and editions de luxe of the "best six sellers" are doomed, and according to this publisher's opinion there will be no royalty left for the author after the retailer has deducted 10 cents profit and the publisher 15 cents.

"We are approaching a revolution," he said, "and in a short time there will be no more $1 and $1.25 books. The public will not pay exorbitant prices for reading during leisure hours."

Oiled Streets Cause "Oily Eye."

"Oily eye" is the latest affliction which modern humanity has had to suffer. Numerous persons in South Norwalk, Conn., have been complaining of late that their eyelids have been turning yellow and their lashes have been falling out.

The doctors say it is a regular epidemic and assign it to the liberal use of oil upon the streets of the town. In confirmation they point to the fact that the trolley motormen are the greatest sufferers. More than 100,000 gallons of oil have been placed upon the streets of the town this summer.

Food for Cats—and for Thought.

Said the hobo: "I went around to a back door today and asked for something to eat. 'Madam,' I said, 'if you will only give me the food you gave your cat I will be satisfied.' 'If you want to lie around the barn and catch mice I haven't any objections,' she told me."—Atchison Globe.

JUDGE TELLS HOW TO AVOID DIVORCE.

Gives List of Instructions For Wives and Advice For Husbands.

Judge Petit of Chicago has come to the conclusion that parents of young married people are largely to blame for family troubles.

"The mothers-in-law are foremost trouble makers," said the judge. "I have all reverence for mothers and motherhood, but they must not argue with their daughter-in-law or son-in-law, but must realize that they are individuals and have their work to do in the world. Mother can give advice when asked for it.

"But summer resorts, winter resorts and flat life can be blamed for many divorces.

"It is bad for husband and wife to be separated by trips away from home.

"My advice to husbands who wish to avoid divorce is this:

"Don't quote mother.

"Call up your wife while at business and ask how she is and say you called her up just to hear her voice.

"Give her a box of candy.

"One of the new books that she is interested in.

"A flower, even if it is faded and you have picked it up off the street.

"A pretty pin or handkerchief.

"And don't ever lay your head on your pillow at night without having done something to gain and obtain a firmer hold on your wife's love.

"Kiss her every day.

"At least once a month meet her downtown and take her to dinner and the theater.

"Don't you ever stop courting, for as soon as you do some other man will begin.

"Make your wife your companion.

"Take her out with you and when you have to have a big time take your wife along, and the divorce evil will be lessened.

"For the wives I should advise:

"Don't quote father.

"Pet your husband; he is only a big kid.

"Meet him at the door with a smile.

"Dress carefully as you did when he came courting.

"Wear the color he likes you in and the style of gown.

"Have something in the way of a surprise dish for dinner.

"Read the papers and magazines and be your husband's intellectual equal.

"Keep up with him in any special line of work.

"Encourage his hobby.

"Be sympathetic and do not tell him all the troubles of the day; he has had his own, more significant and important individually than all yours put together.

"Keep his clothes in order, a clean house and good food.

"Your husband is then yours forever and ever. No chorus girl or pretty stenographer can take him away from you. But keep him or somebody else will snap him up and make him think she and she alone ever did or will understand him."

DIRE DISTRESS

It is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Ypsilanti Readers.

Don't neglect an aching back.

Bachache is the kidneys' cry for help.

Neglect hurrying to their aid

Means that urinary troubles follow quickly,

Dire distress, diabetes, Bright's disease.

Mrs. Thomas Barnum 23 Water St., Ypsilanti, Mich., says: "About a year ago I began to suffer from kidney trouble brought on by a heavy cold. I had such severe pains across the small of my back that I could scarcely stoop or lift and none of the remedies I tried brought me more than temporary relief. Often it was difficult for me to get up from a sitting position on account of sharp twinges through my body. I was also troubled by painful passages of the kidney secretions. Upon using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Weinmann-Matthews Co.'s Drug Store, I soon found relief and before long I felt like a different person." (From statement given Dec., 1906.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE.

On Dec. 16, 1908, Mrs. Barnum added: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly as I have never had any serious recurrence of kidney trouble."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MAY BE BULLFIGHTS ON AMERICAN SOIL.

Elaborate Preparations In Salt Lake Include Matadors and Mexican Bulls.

Indications that an attempt is to be made to have real bullfights on American soil are causing much excitement among people in Salt Lake City who are opposed to such things. There are evidences that the same forces which prevented the Johnson-Jeffries fight in Utah will soon be arrayed to prevent a spectacle which they would consider far worse than pugilism.

There were hints of great things to come a few weeks ago when Felix Robert, a French matador, recently arranged with the management of Saltair, a resort on the Great Salt lake, for a great Spanish festival, to begin July 22 and last eight days. No alarming announcement of a real bullfight was made, but it was said that real men of the bull ring would be present, and hints were given that their talent would not be entirely wasted.

Now the management of Saltair has made it known that Robert, who went to Mexico recently to arrange for the toreadors, dancing girls and others for the troupe, has engaged some of the most successful bullfighters of the capital itself. More significantly, it is announced that he has purchased a carload of specially bred fighting bulls such as are killed in the rings in Mexico. It is remarked by one local paper that evidently "something out of the ordinary is in store for people who attend that affair." Except on Sundays evening performances are to be given in an inclosure that certainly closely resembles a bull ring.

It is only since the announcement of the purchase of the specially bred bulls that the church people of Salt Lake City have begun to be aroused. They cannot understand why noted toreadors and fine bulls are brought unless for real bullfights and suspect that there is a purpose quietly to introduce such performances and then attempt to give them in other states.

PRIZE FOR NEGRO GIRL.

Her Essay on "The Fly" Wins Ten Dollar Gold Piece.

A thirteen-year-old negro girl in New York captured the highest of the several prizes offered by the fly fighting committee of the American Civic association for the best essays on "The Housefly as a Carrier of Disease," written by school children. That is, she was victor among New York children. Similar contests have been conducted in three Kansas cities and sets of prizes awarded there.

Wille Henderson, the lucky little negro girl, is a pupil in the Henrietta school, one of the Children's Aid society schools. She got a ten dollar gold piece for her essay, which is an eloquent arraignment of the dangerous fly.

"If we only believed," she writes in her painstaking round hand, "that the filthy fly was the germ carrier we would not spend so much time disinfecting ourselves and avoiding the houses or streets in which disease may be found. Instead we would clean our rooms, make our homes sanitary and inspect the shops from which we buy our food."

One of the western child prize winners won $10 with a "Biography of a Fly."

"The woman across the way is losing all her flies," one chapter runs. "She won't give them anything to eat. She covers up her garbage pails. So the flies come over to our house, and our children can't get afternoon naps and are always cross, while hers are happy and healthy."

DEWEY FORGIVES THIEF.

Refuses to Prosecute Servant Who Took Valuable Plate.

Admiral Dewey discovered recently that some beautiful silver plate given to him by friends and citizens soon after his return from Manila bay had disappeared from his home, in K street, Washington. It was worth about $1,200, but the associations made it far more valuable.

It was several days before Admiral Dewey could bring himself to report the facts to the police authorities, as he suspected the thief was in the confidence of his household. He went over the matter with Major Sylvester, chief of police, and asked that no publicity be given the matter without his consent. It was not long before the detective bureau recovered the plate, which had been taken by an old and trusted employee of the admiral.

When a report was made to the admiral he said it was the servant's first step in wrongdoing and decided not to prosecute. The culprit broke down under the admiral's reproaches and begged for mercy and was not only forgiven, but continued in the admiral's employ.

Some Name.

The new catalogue of the University of Wisconsin has some interesting statistics regarding the students who attended the university during the year just closed. The longest name borne by any student who attended the institution is Dermugerditchyan, which boasts sixteen letters and five syllables. The name of Schattschneider runs the sixteen letter name a close second, having fifteen letters, but only three syllables. Third place is held by the name of Kerchensteiner, and fourth by Eichenberger, with fourteen and twelve letters respectively. The shortest name in the university is Li, which is borne by a Chinaman.

FRECKLES GONE

"Simple Remedy from my Druggist Removed Them," Says Society Lady.

"The best skin specialists told me that nothing would remove my freckles and that I would carry them to my grave," said a well known society woman, "but I fooled them all with a new drug, othine—double strength, that I bought at my druggist's which cleared my skin and gave me a fine complexion."

The action of othine is really remarkable, for when applied at night, many of the freckles disappear entirely by morning, and the rest have begun to fade. An ounce is usually all that is needed, even for the worst case.

Be sure to ask your druggist for the double strength othine, as this is sold under a guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

Suitable Costumes For Outdoor Functions In Demand.

AFTERNOON DRESS.

Now is the season of the garden party, the popular diversion for a vast majority of social minded people. Gardens are at present no less a fad than are garden parties, a form of entertainment that we borrow from the old world. Many sober minded and benevolent persons have learned that there is no form of recreation that will beguile so many dimes and dollars from the pockets of the careless as will a garden party for the benefit of this or that good cause. For private entertaining the garden party is just as successful. The fortunate suburbanite who has an ample lawn well set off by banks of flowers can always count on cheerful responses to invitations to eat ices or drink tea under her vines and fig trees.

Consequently garden party gowns and garden party hats are matters of interest to many women other than those of the gay world that summer at Newport or Narragansett Pier or Bar Harbor.

The garden party gown pictured here, while suitable for any afternoon function, would be seen to excellent advantage at a smart afternoon lawn party. The wide picture hat of white chip affords the face the necessary protection from the sun, while the soft shimmering yellow chiffon tunic forms an effective contrast with the delicate green of the garden foliage. The tunic is adjusted over an underdress of white satin, a band of gold embroidery flashing along the lower part of the tunic.

EMBROIDERED BAG.

Illustrating the Legend of the House That Jack Built.

Useful for many household purposes is the little bag shown here. It may save the tired mother many steps if used as a darning or sewing bag. As a collar and cuff or handkerchief bag it is very useful. In a little larger proportions it will also do as a general laundry bag.

The embroidery on the bag is a very new and novel effect, designed by the art school of the New York Young Women's Christian association. This department of the school is under the direction of Miss Mary Bacon Jones, widely known for her writings on needlecraft.

The pattern on the bag can be worked in cross stitch or in Kensington stitch. The pattern is a quaint angular one representing the story of Jack and Jill. Jill is standing beside the cow with the crumpled horn, while on the other side of the "house that Jack built" stands its architect, together with the priest all shaven and shorn.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has made it a favorite everywhere. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Frank Smith, Druggist.
